Defendants.

TO: Defendant Steven E. Miller and Defendant The New CB Shop, Inc.

Plaintiff's motion for temporary restraining came before the court on June 3, 2005.

Based on the record, including the supporting affidavits, the court finds:

1. If defendants are not immediately restrained as set forth below, plaintiff will suffer irreparable injury, loss, or damage.

PAGE 1 - TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ENTER

2. It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

A. Defendants, and their agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this order, by personal service or otherwise, are restrained and enjoined from making any telephone calls to plaintiff and its agents, servants, employees, and attorneys.

B. Defendants, and their agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of this order, by personal service or otherwise, are restrained and enjoined from making any contact with plaintiff and its agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, but defendants may contact plaintiff's attorneys in writing and defendants' licensed attorneys may contact plaintiff's attorneys by telephone.

3. Defendant shall appear before this court on Friday, 6/10/05 at 1:30 p.m.
/ xxxxxx at .m.,
Room 13B, United States District Court, 1000 SW 2nd Avenue, Portland, Oregon, and show cause, if any there be, why the activity described above should not continue to be restrained during the pendency of this action.

4. This temporary restraining order shall expire on June 13, 2005 unless extended by further order of this court.

5. This order shall be effective immediately and the security requirement is waived.

DATED this 3 day of June, 2005.
